Code of Conduct

Welcome to Amery Centennial Hall & Senior Center. Our Center is an activity center where adults over 18 can participate in recreation, socialization, educational, and fitness activities, as well as find a variety of helpful, relevant services.

It is imperative that all participants act appropriately while at the Amery Centennial Hall and Senior Center. This means that people should treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.

We are committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment for our participants, visitors, and staff. The following Code of Conduct has been adopted to help create a supportive, relaxed and pleasurable environment for all participants, volunteers and employees associated with Amery Centennial Hall and Senior Center.

Participants are asked to:

- Treat all participants, volunteers and staff with kindness, courtesy and respect.
- Be supportive and accepting of one another's differences.
- Be welcoming to visitors and new participants.
- Be open to the help of new volunteers. Be helpful and cooperative.
- Refrain from using insulting, abusive and/or derogatory language. If you believe you are being spoken to in such a way, please seek the assistance of an employee.
- Be flexible in accepting alternate facility assignments or modification to schedules due to maintenance, scheduling conflicts and emergency situations.
- Observe program rules and regulations at all times.
- Treat public and private property and equipment with respect.
- Not invite community businesses or organizations into the center without management approval in writing.
- Seek approval of Director should you wish to circulate a petition or survey, promote or sell tickets for an organization or event that is not sponsored by Amery Centennial Hall and Senior Center

The following is not acceptable conduct:

- profanity, vulgarity, or explicit sexual language
- hate speech or epithets (e.g. racial, ethnic, sexist, homophobic and religious slurs)
- promotion of or engaging in any illegal activities
- participating while under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- harassment of any kind to any one
- fighting, physical and/or verbal abuse, challenging others to fight, destroying or damaging property

Each participant should be able to socialize and interact with others in an independent positive manner. Everyone should treat those they encounter in the same manner that they would like to be treated.

Failure to follow the above guidelines will constitute a disciplinary action to be determined by staff. It could range from a verbal or written reprimand, suspension or expulsion depending on the gravity of the situation. In certain situations it may be necessary to defer matters to public safety personnel (police) to insure participant compliance and/or safety.

Participants returning to the Center in violation of the suspension or expulsion order will be asked to leave by the Center staff. Should this approach be unsuccessful, public safety personnel (police) will be called to assist and protect the safety and welfare of staff and participants.

By signing the application form, you are agreeing to this code of conduct.
